premises. In addition, the embassy arranged meetings with the Company Management and the Ministry of Social Affairs & Labour, Kuwait to resolve the issue. Due to the concerted efforts of the Embassy, 38 nursing assistants have returned to India on tickets provided by the Company. 35 nursing assistants rejoined duties in the Company. However, of the remaining 107 nursing assistants, 98 still continue to stay in the Embassy premises while 9 have chosen to have the Embassy on their own. Some of the 98 have decided to either file a case in a Kuwaiti court or negotiate through the Ministry of Social Affairs and Labour; others have not made a decision as yet. The Indian Ambassador is personally monitoring the situation and is hopeful of an amicable solution even in respect of the 98 remaining nursing assistants.
